RWorksheet_Songaling#3b

Charles Daniel Songaling

2023-10-11

```
#1. Create a data frame using the table below.
#a. Write the codes.
household_data <- data.frame(</pre>
            Respondents =c(1:20),
            Sex = c("Female", "Female", "Female", "Female", "Female", "Female", "Female", "Female", "Female", "Female", "Male", "Female", Fathers_Occupation = c("Farmer", "Others", "Others", "Farmer", "Driver", "Others", "Farmer", "Farmer", "Farmer", "Farmer", "Farmer", "Farmer", "Farmer", "Farmer", "Farmer", "Others", "Farmer", "Farmer", "Others", "Farmer", "Others", "Farmer", "Others", "Farmer", "Others", "Farmer", "Others", "Farmer", "Others", "Others", "Farmer", "Others", "Farmer", "Others", "Farmer", "Others", "Farmer", "Farmer", "Others", "Others", "Others", "Farmer", "Farmer", "Others", "Farmer", "Fa
            Persons_at_home = c(5,7,3,8,5,9,6,7,8,4,7,5,4,7,8,8,3,11,7,6), Siblings_at_school = c(6,4,4,1,2,1,5,3,1,2,3,2,5,5,2,1,2,5,3,2), Types_of_houses = c("Wood", "Semi-Concrete", "Concrete", "Wood", "Wood", "Concrete", "Concrete", "Wood", "Semi-Concrete", "Wood", "Semi-Concrete", "Wood", "Semi-Concrete", "Wood", "Concrete", "Concrete", "Wood", "Concrete", "Concrete", "Wood", "Concrete", "C household_data
##
                                    Respondents
                                                                                                                                Sex Fathers_Occupation Persons_at_home Siblings_at_school
1
                                                                                                  1 Female
2
                                                                                                 2 Female
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Others
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    7 4
3
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    3
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         4
                                                                                                                          Male
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Others
4
                                                                                                 4 Female
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    8
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Others
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         1
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    5
5
                                                                                                 5 Female
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Farmer
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         2
6
                                                                                                 6 Female
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Driver
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    9
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         1
                                                                                                 7 Female
7
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Others
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    6 5
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    7
8
                                                                                                 8 Female
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Farmer
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         3
9
                                                                                                9 Female
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    8
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Farmer
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         1
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    4
10
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         2
                                                                                           10 Female
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  Farmer
11
                                                                                                                         Male
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  Others
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    7
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         3 5 2
12
                                                                                            12 Female
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  Driver
13
                                                                                           13 Female
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  Farmer
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    4
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         5
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    7
14
                                                                                            14 Female
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Others
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         5
15
                                                                                           15 Female
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Others
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    8
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        2
16
                                                                                            16 Female
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Farmer
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    8
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         1
17
                                                                                            17 Female
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Others
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   3
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        2
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         5
18
                                                                                            18 Female
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Farmer
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               11
19
                                                                                                                         Male Driver
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   7
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         3 19
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    6
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         2
20
                                                                                            20 Female
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Farmer
##
                                    Types_of_houses
1
                                                                                                        Wood
2
                                                Semi-Concrete
3
                                                                               Concrete
4
                                                                                                        Wood
```

```
5
                 Wood
6 Concrete
7 Concrete
8 booW
9
       Semi-Concrete
10
             Concrete
11
       Semi-Concrete
12
             Concrete
13
       Semi-Concrete
14
       Semi-Concrete
15
             Concrete
16
             Concrete
17
             Concrete
18
             Concrete
19
             Concrete
20
       Semi-Concrete
#b. Describe the data. Get the structure or the summary of the data
summary(household_data)
    Respondents
##
                        Sex
                                       Fathers_Occupation Persons_at_home
Min. : 1.00
                                       Length:20
                                                          Min. : 3.0
                   Length:20
                                                          1st Qu.: 5.0
1st Qu.: 5.75
                    Class :character
                                       Class :character
Median :10.50
                   Mode :character
                                       Mode :character
                                                          Median: 7.0
Mean :10.50
                                                          Mean : 6.4
3rd Qu.:15.25
                                                          3rd Qu.: 8.0
Max.
          :20.00
                                                          Max.
                                                                 :11.0
Siblings_at_school Types_of_houses
Min.
          :1.00
                       Length:20
1st Qu.:2.00
                       Class : character
Median :2.50
                      Mode :character
Mean :2.95
3rd Qu.:4.25
Max.
          :6.00
str(household_data)
'data.frame':
                    20 obs. of 6 variables:
$ Respondents
                        : int 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 ...
                              "Female" "Female" "Male" "Female" ...
$ Sex
                        : chr
                               "Farmer" "Others" "Others" "Others" ...
$ Fathers_Occupation: chr
$ Persons_at_home
                       : num 5738596784 ...
$ Siblings_at_school: num 6 4 4 1 2 1 5 3 1 2 ...
                              "Wood" "Semi-Concrete" "Concrete" "Wood" ...
   $ Types_of_houses
                       : chr
#The data has 20 obs. and 6 variables.
#c. Is the mean number of siblings attending is 5?
mean_siblings <- mean(household_data$Siblings_at_school)</pre> is_mean_5 <- mean_siblings == 5</pre> print(is_mean_5)
[1] FALSE
#The answer is no because the mean number is 2.95.
#d. Extract the 1st two rows and then all the columns using the subsetting functions. Write the codes a first_two_rows_all_columns <- household_data[1:2, ]</pre>
```

```
print(first_two_rows_all_columns)
##
          Respondents
                                        Sex Fathers_Occupation Persons_at_home Siblings_at_school
1
                                                                         Farmer
                                                                                                                    5
                                                                         Others
                                                                                                                    7
2
                              2 Female
                                                                                                                                                           4
##
          Types_of_houses
1
                                Wood
2
              Semi-Concrete
#It shows the data in 1st two rows and the columns in those rows.
#e. Extract 3rd and 5th row with 2nd and 4th column. Write the codes and its result.
selected_rows_columns <- household_data[c(3, 5), c(2, 4)]</pre> print(selected_rows_columns)
                Sex Persons_at_home
3
              Male
                                                     3
5 Female
#The output is the data in the 3rd and 5th row with the 2nd and 4th column.
#f. Select the variable types of houses then store the vector that results as types_houses. Write the c types_houses <- household_data$Types_of_houses</pre> print(types_houses)
     [1] "Wood"
                                                 "Semi-Concrete" "Concrete"
                                                                                                                  "Wood"
       [5] "Wood"
                                                 "Concrete"
                                                                                                                  "Wood"
##
                                                                                  "Concrete"
       [9] "Semi-Concrete" "Concrete"
                                                                                  "Semi-Concrete" "Concrete"
[13] "Semi-Concrete" "Semi-Concrete" "Concrete"
                                                                                                                  "Concrete"
[17] "Concrete"
                                                 "Concrete"
                                                                                  "Concrete"
                                                                                                                  "Semi-Concrete"
#q. Select only all Males respondent that their father occupation was farmer. Write the codes and its o
males_farmers <- household_data[household_data$Sex == "Male" & household_data$Fathers_Occupation == "Fa print(males_farmers)
[1] Respondents
                                                     Sex
                                                                                           Fathers_Occupation Persons_at_home
[5] Siblings_at_school Types_of_houses
<0 rows> (or 0-length row.names)
#The output is empty because there is no male with a father whose occupation is farmer.
#h. Select only all females respondent that have greater than or equal to 5 number of siblings attendin females_greater_than_5_siblings <- household_data[household_data$Sex == "Female" & household_data$Siblings <- household_data$Sibl print(females_greater_than_5_siblings)
##
            Respondents
                                           Sex Fathers_Occupation Persons_at_home Siblings_at_school
1
                                                                           Farmer
                                1 Female
                                                                                                                      5
7
                                7 Female
                                                                           Others
                                                                                                                      6 5
13
                              13 Female
                                                                           Farmer
                                                                                                                      4
                                                                                                                                                             5
                              14 Female
                                                                                                                      7
14
                                                                           Others
                                                                                                                                                             5
18
                                                                           Farmer
                                                                                                                                                             5
                              18 Female
                                                                                                                    11
##
            Types_of_houses
1
                                  Wood
7
                          Concrete
               Semi-Concrete
13
14
               Semi-Concrete
                          Concrete
18
```

```
#The output is the data of all female respondents that have 5 or more siblings attending school.
#2. Write a R program to create an empty data frame. Using the following codes:
df = data.frame(Ints=integer(),
  Doubles=double(), Characters=character(),
 Logicals=logical(), Factors=factor(), stringsAsFactors=FALSE)
print("Structure of the empty dataframe:")
[1] "Structure of the empty dataframe:"
print(str(df))
'data.frame':
                    0 obs. of 5 variables:
$ Ints
$ Doubles
               : num
$ Characters: chr
$ Logicals : logi
$ Factors
              : Factor w/ 0 levels:
NULL
#a. Describe the results.
#The data frame is empty because no data has been added yet.
#3. Create a .csv file of this. Save it as HouseholdData.csv
write.csv(household data, file = "HouseholdData.csv", row.names = FALSE)
#a. Import the csv file into the R environment. Write the codes.
imported_data <- read.csv("HouseholdData.csv")</pre>
#b. Convert the Sex into factor using factor()function and change it into integer. [Legend: Male = 1 and imported_data$Sex <- factor(imported_data$Sex, levels = c("Male", "Female"))</pre> imported_data$Sex <- as.integer(imported_data$Sex)</pre>
#c. Convert the Type of Houses into factor and change it into integer. [Legend: Wood = 1; Concrete = 2;
imported_data$Types_of_houses <- factor(imported_data$Types_of_houses, levels = c("Wood", "Concrete", "</pre> imported_data$Types_of_houses <- as.integer(imported_data$Types_of_houses)</pre> #d.On father's occupation, factor it as Farmer = 1; Driver = 2; and Others = 3. What is the R code and imported_data$Fathers_Occupation <- factor(imported_data$Fathers_Occupation, levels = c("Farmer", "Driv imported_data$Fathers_Occupation <- as.integer(imported_data$Fathers_Occupation)</pre> #e. Select only all females respondent that has a father whose occupation is driver. Write the codes an female_drivers <- imported_data[imported_data$Sex == 2 & imported_data$Fathers_Occupation == 2, ] print(female drivers)
      Respondents Sex Fathers_Occupation Persons_at_home Siblings_at_school
##
6
                6
                    2
                                        2
                                                        9
                                                                            1
                                        2
                                                                            2
12
               12
                                                        5
      Types_of_houses
##
6
                    2
12
                    2
#The output is the data of all the female respondent that has a father whose occupation is a driver but
```

greater_than_5_siblings <- imported_data[imported_data$Siblings_at_school >= 5,] #f. Select the respondents that have greater than or equal to 5 number of siblings attending school. Wr

print(greater_than_5_siblings)

```
##
      {\tt Respondents~Sex~Fathers_Occupation~Persons_at_home~Siblings_at_school}
1
7
                 7
                     2
                                          3
                                                            6 5
13
                13
                     2
                                                                                 5 1
                                                            4
14
                14 2
                                          3
                                                            7 5
18
                18
                     2
                                          1 5 11
##
      Types_of_houses
1
7
                      2
13
                     3
14
                     3
18
                      2
```

#The output is the data of all the respondents that have greater than or equal to 5 number of siblings

^{#4.} Interpret the graph.

[#] The graph in figure 3 shows the sentiments of people when tweeting during July 14 until July 21, 2020